

Association for Psychoanalytic
Psychotherapy of Western Australia

APPWA Seminar by Allan Shafer

“Infected minds to their deaf pillows will discharge their secrets.”

How we dream what we should not know and how we speak what we have known.

Allan Shafer is a clinical psychologist and socio-analyst with over thirty years experience as an adult (and formerly, child) psychotherapist, clinical supervisor and teacher. He has over 20 years' experience as an organization consultant. He works privately in Perth. His work is primarily long term psychoanalytic psychotherapy with adults. He supervises clinicians from various disciplines, where his focus is on “thinking psychoanalytically.”

As a socio-analyst, he has consulted in the health and mental health sectors, and with educational and religious organizations – public and community – in Australia, South Africa, Singapore, Israel, the USA, and the UK. He has also published and lectured widely. Allan is currently President of APPWA.
