

Association for Psychoanalytic
Psychotherapy of Western Australia

APPWA presents

The Never Ending Story: Working with Traumatized and Disturbed Adolescents.

A workshop offered by

Roslyn Webb

Child, Adolescent and Adult Psychoanalytic Psychotherapist and Clinical Psychologist

Roslyn Webb is currently working in private practice with adolescents and adults in Melbourne and she provides a consultation service to Mental Health Workers in the Riverland, South Australia. She also teaches and provides supervision related to adolescent development, assessment and psychotherapy. She is a lecturer and supervisor in a range of post graduate courses associated with Monash University, School of Psychology, Psychiatry and Psychological Medicine. She has presented many papers and workshops within Australia and internationally in relation to adolescence. Her work spans over 30 years within public (in inpatient and outpatient settings), private and community sectors. She was the Senior Clinical Psychologist at Austin CAMHS (Victoria) for 13 years from 1984 to 1997. Roslyn was President of the Victorian Child Psychotherapists Association from 1997 to 2002.

Roslyn will use a film linked to her clinical work with an adolescent who presented many dilemmas for reflection and learning.
